

strokenetwork
SOUTHEASTERN ONTARIO

FOR MORE INFORMATION

heather.jenkins@kingstonhsc.ca
www.strokenetworkseo.ca

RECONNECTING OVER STROKE PREVENTION- A PRIMARY CARE UPDATE

REGISTRATION IS FREE BUT REQUIRED
CLICK HERE TO REGISTER

JOIN US FOR AN OPPORTUNITY TO LEARN ABOUT:

- What's new in primary and secondary stroke prevention
- The roles of local and tertiary stroke care centers in the region
- What new supports are available to patients in your community
- Discuss challenges and opportunities with your colleagues and specialists in your area

MARCH 7TH, 2024
1200-1600H
CODE'S MILL ON THE PARK
PERTH ON
LUNCH IS PROVIDED

SPEAKERS:

- Dr. Albert Jin, Stroke Neurologist, KHSC
- Dr. Stephanie Luco, Internist and Lead for PSFDH Vascular Protection Clinic
- Dr. Kate Stolee, Physiatrist, PSFDH
- Jennifer Godkin, Stroke Support Facilitator, Senior Support Services (CPHC)

WHO SHOULD ATTEND:

This workshop is for anyone working in primary care, including but not limited to Physicians, NP's/ RN's, Allied Health, Managers

Session Agenda

Time	Topic	Speaker
1200-1230	Registration and Lunch
1230-1240	Welcome/ Opening	Heather Jenkins
1240-1310	Hyperacute/ Acute stroke care	Dr. Jin
1310-1345	Acute stroke care and rehabilitation for residents of Perth and Smiths Falls, trajectory and handover to community	Acute- TBD Stroke Rehabilitation- Dr. Kate Stolee
1345-1400	Break
1400-1450	Discussion- Role of Primary Care in Stroke Prevention	All
1450-1530	Special considerations in primary and secondary stroke prevention	Dr. Luco
1530-1545	Additional supports available in community	Jennifer Godkin
1545-1600	Wrap- up	Heather Jenkins