

Ontario is on its way to leading patient-centred stroke and aphasia care!

Thanks to funding from the Ontario Ministry of Health grant, selected FREE resources and tools continue to be available promoting Supported Conversation for Adults with Aphasia (SCA™) until March 2022.

FREE FOR HEALTH CARE PROVIDERS IN ONTARIO

Virtual Supported Conversation for Adults with Aphasia (SCA™) Core Training

Pictographic Resource Booklets

"What is Aphasia?" booklets

Working Together Series

FREE Consultations

ALSO AVAILABLE - FREE INTERNATIONALLY

(NEW!) Resources to facilitate conversations with your patient with aphasia:

- COVID-19 Resources
- Family Pamphlet
- Personal A-FROM
- YES/NO Card
- Support for Effective Use of Pictographs
- Introduction to SCA™ eLearning training module
- ParticiPics database of pictographic images
- Communicative Access Measures for Stroke (CAMS) for quality improvement

To access these resources, or for more information:

www.aphasia.ca/free-resources/