FOR THE STROKE SURVIVOR

Social support is a key component of stroke recovery as it can increase self-confidence and decrease feelings of isolation, fear and loneliness. At the meetings you will find peers who understand your post-stroke situation.

FOR THE CAREGIVER

Meeting with other caregivers provides an opportunity to support one another in learning to deal with the life changes resulting from a stroke.

BENEFITS TO YOU OF ATTENDING THE SUPPORT GROUP

- Make new associations and meet new people
- Share your story, your experiences, your concerns and your solutions
- Learn from each other and share strategies for success
- Discover Community Resources
- Learn from a variety of guest speakers chosen by the group participants
